Department Award in Great Books Curriculum

The Great Books Curriculum (GBC) is a unique program for students who may have limited exposure to the classical works of literature and philosophy. Studies have found that students who take GBC courses have a higher success rate in their studies and matriculation as well as greater appreciation for works of intellectual complexity.

At present, GBC courses are offered in select English sophomore literature courses and sections of English 111 designated with a “GB” following the course number (i.e., “English 111GB” or “English 236GB”). Upon satisfactory completion (a grade of “C” or passing) of four GBC courses, a student may receive the English Department’s GBC Award.

To earn the award is a sign of achievement and will look exceptional on one’s resume for college or employment.
