

English, Composition and Literature

In today's information-based society, reading comprehension and writing skills are essential for everyone. The English Program offers a rich and varied education in these vital areas of literacy, serving the individual student, the academic community and society at large.

The pre-freshman course (ENG 100) and the freshman English courses (ENG 110 and 111) provide all students with a foundation in college writing, the reading of nonfiction, fiction, drama, poetry and research. All of these courses have a strong emphasis on development of critical thinking skills in logic and argumentation. In order to further develop understanding of our cultural tradition and to stimulate students' imaginations, the department offers literature courses ranging from surveys of British and American, world and sacred literature and introductory courses in poetry, Shakespeare, contemporary fiction and drama. These sophomore literature courses provide enrichment to any student and fulfill the General Education requirements for all students enrolled in degree and transfer programs.

Also available to students who have completed freshman composition are courses in creative writing, technical writing and advanced composition, each emphasizing development of different writing skills.

The objective of the English Department is to provide each student with the opportunity to develop his or her own reading, writing, research and critical thinking abilities for successful transfer to universities and for functioning in society and the job market.

Program Student Learning Outcomes

1. Analyze college-level texts, both non-fiction and fiction.
2. Write coherent thesis-driven prose.
3. Gather, evaluate and synthesize information to produce a correctly-documented research paper.
4. Revise written work as part of the writing process.
5. Describe and evaluate literary elements and genres.

Certificate of Achievement in Creative Writing

There are two emphases in the Creative Writing Certificate. The General Writing emphasis will enhance students' abilities as creative writers and help them market and publish their work. The Professional Writing emphasis focuses on applied areas of study, such as screenwriting, technical writing, multimedia, and non-fiction.

Requirements: The Certificate in Creative Writing will require a total of 18 units. Students must take both core courses (6 units); then 4 courses from their selected track—Creative Writing Emphasis or Professional Writing Emphasis (12 units), with the possibility of substituting one of those courses from the elective list (3 units). Each emphasis has a list of recommended electives.

Preparation for Transfer

Course requirements for transfer vary depending upon the college or university a student wishes to attend. Therefore, it is most important for a student to consult his/her counselor before planning an academic program for transfer. Information sheets for majors, outlining transfer requirements, are available in the Transfer Center.

Honors and Awards

Outstanding English Student

Each spring at the Awards Banquet, one student is honored as the outstanding English major. Selection is made by faculty on the basis of academic excellence.

Department Award: Great Books Curriculum

With completion of 12 units of GBC-designated courses, a student will receive an English Departmental Award in The Great Books Curriculum, a national higher education program of study designed to acquaint students with works of Western civilization and world literature distinguished for their timeless power, beauty and profundity. See English Department publications for further details and designated courses in addition to those listed here.

Department Award: Emmons Poetry Prize

The Creative Writing Program also receives a generous annual donation from Robert Emmons for the Emmons Poetry Prize. First place receives $1000; second place receives $500. Contest rules are made available at the beginning of the Spring Semester of each academic year.

Department Requirements (12 units)

Complete 4 courses (12 units) which may include the following:

Students must complete a minimum of four (4) Great Books Curriculum courses (12 units total) with a “C” or better in each course.

William Olivarius Scholarship

In 1982, a generous endowment from the late William Olivarius enabled the English Department to offer scholarships to Santa Barbara City College English majors. Scholarships may be awarded each semester on the basis of academic excellence and a competitive essay. To qualify for an award, a student must be a declared English major, be enrolled in 12 units during the time the scholarship is applied and maintain an overall 3.0 grade point average. Eligibility to apply is limited to continuing students at Santa Barbara City College, i.e., those planning to enroll in a minimum of 12 units at SBCC for the following semester. Applications are available from English instructors and the English Center Office, Room IDC-317.

John and Mary Minassian Memorial Scholarship in Literature

Mr. Al Jarmagian has endowed a scholarship in honor of John and Mary Minassian. It will be awarded each year on the basis of merit and a competitive essay. To qualify for an award, a student must be an English major, be enrolled in 12 units and have an overall 3.0 grade point average. Applications are available from the English Center Office, Room IDC-317.

Special Programs and Courses

Placement and Testing

A placement and testing program is conducted each semester for matriculating students and all students who wish to enroll in English or English Skills classes. Since students' success in college studies is much higher when they enroll in the courses that best suit their needs and abilities, testing is mandatory for placement in reading and composition classes.

All new students at Santa Barbara City College, except those who offer proof of completing ENG 110 or its equivalent at another college, should plan to take the English placement exam as early as possible before registering. Placement tests are also available in math, and, like those in English, are required of students enrolling in math courses and recommended for all others. Testing dates are posted on campus and listed in the enrollment checklist, and are available at the Assessment Office, and online at www.sbcc.edu/assessment.

Cambridge or London Semester Abroad

The college offers a program in Cambridge, England, consisting of 15-17 units of transferable courses in English, art, music, history and political science. Students live with families; field trips to London, Stratford, Oxford, Bath, Stonehenge, York and Edinburgh are included. Information on the precise courses offered, dates and costs is available in the Schedule of Credit Classes or through the Study Abroad Office, 965-0581 ext. 2494.

Seminars and Guest Speakers

When local and visiting writers are available, the English Department offers majors seminars, open to English majors, students and faculty interested in literature. These gatherings include a presentation by the guest, discussion and an opportunity for socializing with others of shared interest.

Special Departmental Resources

The Writing Lab, located in the LRC, offers short courses and tutorial assistance to students from all program disciplines, as well as those enrolled in English courses.

The Writing Center, located in the LRC, offers a program in composing and revising on the word processor for students enrolled in ENG 110 and others, as space allows.

The English Department faculty takes an active role in advising students, both during registration and during office hours, throughout the semester. Capsule course descriptions are published each semester summarizing course expectations and reading lists. These are available in the English Center, the Counseling Center and at registration to help students in choosing their courses.

Course Descriptions

Important Note: All students wishing to enroll in English composition classes must complete placement examinations prior to registration. Appointment cards are available in the Admissions and Records Office.
