We strongly encourage you to take the assessment to determine whether you are ready to take an online course. You can find this at <http://online.sbcc.edu/support/orientation/media/orientationObjectives/page1.php>.

On-Campus Attendance

Although most online courses do not require specific time-and-place commitments, some online courses require varying levels of on-campus attendance, as determined by the instructor:

- Fully-online courses require no on-campus meetings or exams but may require students to take exams in a proctored setting.
- Partially online courses may require attendance at on-campus orientations and exams, or have regular meeting times.

Please check the online course descriptions at <http://www.sbcc.edu/distanceeducation/onlinecourses.php> for information on each section's attendance requirements.
