

Disabled Student Programs and Services (DSPS)

dpshelp@sbcc.edu or ext. 2364 (Voice)
(Also see DSPS under "Student Services.")

Disabled Student Programs and Services provides educational support services and reasonable accommodations for students with verified disabilities who are enrolled in courses at SBCC. In addition, the following course is being offered.

Department Offices

Ben Partee, Dean (SS-260, ext. 2237)

Faculty and Offices

Jana Garnett, Director (SS-160A)

Clark Hochstetler, Counselor (SS-160C)

Michelle Britton Bass, Counselor (SS-160C)

Linda Beers, Learning Disabilities Specialist (SS-270C)

Lesley-Anne Taylor,
Learning Disabilities Specialist (SS-270D)

Laurie Vasquez,
Assistive Technologies Specialist (SS-270A)

Course Descriptions

DSPS 077 — Writing/Reading Strategies (2)

Hours: 36 lecture

Designed for students with disabilities who are enrolled in mainstream classes. Students learn a variety of multisensory approaches to writing and reading in order to improve their management of the written language. Graded Pass/No Pass.