

ENGLISH MAJOR CLUB

The purpose of the English Club is to promote and facilitate the enjoyment, appreciation and exploration of language arts in all forms through an unlimited variety of experiences - to promote an expanded concept and experience of the English curriculum - to promote and increase the choice of an English Major.

Membership is open to students, faculty and staff by way of declaration of interest and attendance at club meetings and activities.

President – represents the club in/at any off campus activity or organization – presides at club meetings and activities – maintains vital and productive relationship with club advisor - act as primary liaison between advisor and club members.

Vice/President – fulfills any of the Presidents duties or functions when called upon to do so.

Secretary – maintains minutes of club meetings and provides clerical assistance to club officers and advisor as directly related to club activities.

Treasurer – maintains and processes all monies that relate to club activities through the on-campus club account.

Terms of office shall be one academic year.

Amending this club constitution shall require a majority vote of a majority of club officers and members, current members of the English Club Committee and the faculty advisor.

*** see the original goes into specific English committees and meeting dates.