

Drafting, CAD & Interior Design

Selected Student: Jason Stanley

Submitted by: Armando M. Arias del Cid

Jason Stanley is a consistent student.

He is precise.

He attends classes, participates, and does the assignments.

He is always thorough and pays extreme attention to details.

He manages time efficiently and communicates very well when unexpected situations create obstacles to his progress.

He is always looking to improve his achievements and to obtain feedback so he can move to the next level.

He will move to the next level.

He is our Outstanding Student of the Year.

Jason's Words of Gratitude:

I am humbled and honored to be recognized as the Outstanding Student of the Year in the Drafting & CAD department. I look forward to beginning a career in architecture, engineering and design made possible by the SBCC Drafting & CAD program. I would like to thank professor Armando Arias del Cid for sharing his passion for design, his humor, and for his continual guidance.
